Video Open House 1 Pack

Potential customers will get to know you as you guide them through a complete video tour. The nice thing is... they can watch it any time they choose.

Featured by REALTOR MAGAZINE in their "Websites That Work" section

With full color video and on camera narration, no other method can compare!

Many custom options are available to blend with your current situation and goals.

- Professional on-site production
- Integrate into your website or ours
- Create DVD copies to give your buyers and sellers
- High quality flash Video compression
- No unwanted ads or embarrassing material
- Real time traffic monitoring and detailed statistics

We take care of everything!

We can shoot, edit, and host your open house videos. Although it is a superb opportunity for you, we can even host your tour if you don't feel up to it.

This amazing technology can make your traditional marketing methods work even better!

Every newspaper ad can point to your online open house. Not only do prospects get familiar with the property, they also get to know you.

At Tactical Web Solutions, we specialize in innovative marketing concepts that help you stretch your promotional dollars. We are happy to brainstorm and discuss the multiple ways that you can gain a competitive advantage.
