Ultimate Article Manager

Turn your website into a content publishing powerhouse!

This is the fastest way to add press releases, company news, product reviews, announcements, and specials. Multiple categories and authors are possible. All content is searchable and each article has a "cross-sell" linking capability to your products. You write the article and the website takes care of the navigation and positioning.

New Feature - Most recent articles will appear on the home page with a short description and date posted. You decide how many articles to show in this space.

Benefits of Using The Ultimate Article Manager

- Easy to add and manage content
- Separates articles from main content topics, or products
- Highly visible to search engines
- Can have multiple authors
- Multiple categories
- All article content is searchable

Why should you use this article manager?

Keeping your website current and relevant is the key to keeping your visitors (and the search engines) coming back. This is the fastest and easiest way to manage huge amounts of content. Article ideas come from your day to day operations and customer questions and comments.

The Ultimate Article Manager can help give your website - The Ultimate Competitive Advantage!
